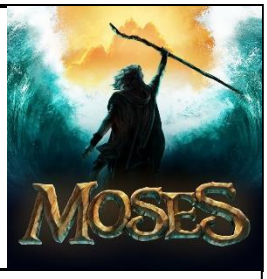
Moses & God's People

Key Verse: "The LORD will fight for you; you need only to be still."
Exodus 14:14



Week 2: June 13-19, 2021

The Burning Bush

Exodus 3:1-15

Opening God's Word

Read Exodus 3:1-15 as a family.

Questions for Discussion:

- Moses had to flee from Egypt. He gets married and is living with his wife's family when we pick up his story again here in Exodus 3. What is Moses doing in the wilderness? (vs. 1)
- What does Moses see? (vs. 2)
- What is strange about what he sees? (vs. 2-3)
- What happens when he approaches the bush? (vs. 4)
- What does God say to Moses? (vs. 4-6)
- How did Moses feel? What did he do? (vs. 6)
- What job does God have for Moses to do? (vs. 7-10)
- Moses isn't quite convinced he can do this so what does God tell Moses in verse 12?
- What does Moses ask next? (vs. 13)
- What is the answer to Moses's question? (vs. 14-15)
- Moses is not really excited about this assignment. He keeps giving God many reasons why He should not return to Egypt. Eventually Moses does go. Have you ever had a time when you did not want to obey God or His Word? What happened?

Prayer

Take some time to pray as a family. Thank God for not giving up on us when we do not want to obey Him. Ask Him to help us to obey Him. Continue praying however you feel led.

Family Challenge

In Exodus 3 God identifies Himself with the name I AM. Did you know God has many different names? Do you know any of them? This week do a little research on God's different names. Google "Names of God in the Bible and meaning." Make a list of all the names.
