ORIGINS OF MAUNDY THURSDAY

The name "Maundy Thursday" comes from the Latin phrase "mandatum novum," referring to the "new commandment" Jesus taught his disciples (John 13:34). In other words, today is "new commandment Thursday." Let us love one another as He loved us!

THAT SCRIPTURE BE FULFILLED MATTHEW 26:31-35; 47-56

How was scripture fulfilled on Thursday?

1. _____ by those He came to _____, Jesus _____ for deserters & runaways . (v.31-35)

2. _____ & arrested, Jesus _____

to God's plan to _____ traitors & liars. (v.47-50)

3. Refusing _____, Jesus _____

to execution in order to _____ God's word. (v.51-56)
