Missions Emphasis Sunday: ERIC & DEBBIE STONE IN GUATEMALA

Eric and Debbie Stone are missionaries serving in Pueblo Modelo, Guatemala and affiliated with The Antioch Partners. The Stones' ministries are designed to promote a Christian culture via education and practical training that help people make decisions that facilitate an orderly, God-ordained existence in the face of growing social chaos. Their ministries prioritize women and children. Here are some prayer requests:

- 1- Pray for their partnership with churches in Chiquimula, Guatemala training community chaplains.
- 2- Pray that the women in the sewing group might have success with training to both design, produce and sell underwear on a small scale
- 3- Pray for Eric to be able to teach the Kingdom Peace and Righteousness course to other congregations looking to be involve in procuring the wellbeing of their communities.
- 4- Give thanks for the promising success of both the sewing and the Christian community development projects.

THANK YOU!

We are deeply grateful for all the donations made for Easter Sunday—specifically the contributions of prepared food and groceries—as well as for everyone who participated in the Resurrection play and the music and sound teams. Everyone contributed their fair share, and for that, we thank you.
