First Sunday of Advent

Missions Emphasis Sunday: Kouakou Francis Yah & Family

Francis Kouakou Yah, Francis Daniel (son), and Enalba Yigiya (daughter) serve as missionaries in Colombia (San Pedro) and in Mali (Fegoun). They plant churches, run a Christian school and a children's soup kitchen in Mali. They preach the gospel of Christ, seeking to do the good works that God prepared beforehand in places that are difficult to reach and where Christ has not yet been preached. They currently have a Mission Center in Mali and are also serving the San Pedro Substation, Sucre, Colombia. Please pray for:

1. The whole family as they mourn the loss of Enalba Yah Garcia (wife/mom).
2. The socio-political and economic situation of Mali because the country is under jihadist attacks;
3. The safety of the children they serve, their ministry partners, as well as for the wisdom and understanding of their students.
4. The spiritual growth of the new converts from the churches planted in Fegoun (Mali) and in Colombia (Cartagena & San Pedro).

We Need YOU to Help Host at Fellowship Time

We have Fellowship Time after the 9am and 11am services two times a month. We need your help to host by bringing and serving food! You can help with fellowship time by either being part of the regular rotation of hosts or by hosting it once or twice a year. Please contact Ana Lopez for more information and to sign up!

We Need a Poinsettia Co-Coordinator!

The worshiping team is looking for a person to be the co-coordinator for Poinsettias for Christmas Eve. We have a co-coordinator who will collect money and print the memorial list. We need a co-coordinator to order, purchase, coordinate delivery and set up the poinsettias in the sanctuary the day before Christmas Christmas Eve. Please contact Jayne Panewicz, Pastor Tim or Pastora Alexandra if you're interested.
